Re: Comcast Cable Commc'ns, LLC v. Mission Broadcasting, Inc., Case No. 1:21-cv-06860

Dear Judge Koeltl:

Pursuant to Rule VI.A.2 of Your Honor's Individual Practices, Third-Party Defendant Mission Broadcasting, Inc. ("Mission") respectfully seeks leave to file a pre-motion letter under seal.

On May 24, 2022, this Court entered an Order permanently sealing portions of Third-Party Plaintiff Comcast Cable Communications, LLC's ("Comcast") Third-Party Complaint that contain references to, and verbatim quotations from, a confidential Retransmission Consent Agreement between Mission and Comcast. See ECF No. 64. Mission's pre-motion letter, which seeks leave to dismiss Comcast's Third-Party Complaint, references and quotes from several of those now-permanently-sealed allegations.

Consistent with the Court's Order, Mission has redacted portions of its pre-motion letter that correspond with the information that has been permanently sealed, and will file only the redacted version of its pre-motion letter on the public docket. Mission thus hereby requests leave to file its unredacted pre-motion letter under seal.

Mission has notified all counsel of record of its proposal. Counsel for Nexstar and Comcast consent to Mission's proposed approach, and have not requested an advance opportunity to review Mission's proposed redactions. Accordingly, pursuant to Rule VI.A.2 of Your Honor's Individual Practices, Mission is contemporaneously submitting a redacted version of its pre-motion letter on the public docket, as well as an unredacted version of its pre-motion letter under seal.

We are available to provide any further information that may aid the Court in its determination of this matter.
